B.	Request for Leave Form

1. Introduction

While it is recognised that most employees will occasionally have genuine and acceptable reasons to be absent from work, it is also recognised that whilst a certain level of leave may be inevitable, a reasonable balance must be maintained between the needs of the schools and the support of the employee requiring time off.

Headteachers have the discretion to agree temporary or one-off changes to working patterns to allow staff to make up time by working additional hours. This is subject to the operational requirements of the school and if agreed should be kept on personal files for audit purposes. It should be noted that the headteachers retain the right to decline requests for one-off changes to working patterns should the operational requirements of the schools not allow for the leave to be taken.

All leave in relation to sickness should be managed in accordance with the Attendance Policy and Procedure (Sickness Absence), or the Supporting Working Parents Policy where applicable.

All other requests for any other leave should be managed under this policy.

2. Aims of the Policy

Teachers and many school support staff, unlike other LA employees not working in or with schools, do not have the flexibility to take annual leave during term time. Given that some events, emergencies and appointments arising in the course of employment cannot be organised in advance within school holidays or at weekends, the aim of this policy is to encourage and assist all employees to achieve and maintain acceptable standards of attendance at work by:

- Equipping all headteachers and line managers to manage leave requests consistently, fairly and in a confidentially transparent manner through the use of clear procedures and guidelines;
- Providing a safe and healthy working environment and where possible, to enhance the health and well-being of employees;
- Ensuring that all employees understand their obligations and entitlements with regards to special leave.

It should be noted that Powys County Council anticipates that this policy will be applied consistently across all Powys schools.

3. Scope

This procedure covers all teaching staff employed under the Conditions of Service for Schoolteachers in England and Wales, including those employed by the Governors of an Aided or Foundation school where adopted. It also applies to support staff employed in schools covered under the NJC National Agreement on Pay and Conditions of Service. The procedure will be applied fairly to full time or part time staff and to staff employed on a temporary or fixed term contract regardless of:

- Race;
- Sex;
- Disability;
- Marital or civil partnership;
- Sexual orientation;
- Age;
- Religion or belief;
- Gender reassignment;
- Trade union membership

This procedure does not apply in respect of staff who are employed on a casual basis, including supply teachers.

4. Managing Special Leave Procedure

All leave requests should be submitted to the headteacher or line manager on a school Special Leave Request form (Appendix B), allowing, where practicable, at least one weeks' notice of the requested leave being taken.

For 'other' leave not listed in this policy, a Request for Leave form (Appendix B) should be fully completed by the employee and passed to the headteacher or line manager allowing, where practicable, two weeks' notice. This should include an explanation for the leave request. The line manager (where this is not the headteacher) should pass this decision to the headteacher. The headteacher may wish to discuss the application with the relevant committee of the governing body before reaching a decision.

When considering applications for 'other' leave not listed in this policy (or discretionary additional leave to types of special leave permissible under this policy) consideration will be given on a case by case basis. Factors to be considered include:

- Consistency of approach;
- Personal circumstances of the employee;
- The likely impact on the employee of not granting the request;
- Special leave already taken by that employee in the current academic year and whether this was granted or refused;
- Burden of additional costs;
- Inability to re-organise work among existing staff;
- Additional burden of work being placed on other staff;
- Detrimental impact on quality and/or performance.

Once a decision has been made in response to a request for leave, the headteacher or line manager must complete the headteacher or line manager's section of the Request for Leave form to notify the employee of the decision. This includes whether the request is granted and whether the leave will be with or without pay. Where an employee is unhappy with the headteacher's decision the matter may be referred to the Chair of the Governing Body for a final decision. This does not preclude the headteacher from discussing a request with the Chair of the Governing Body prior to making a decision.

In the event of emergency leave where prior notification is not possible, the employee is required to contact their headteacher or line manager to request special leave, following the same process as they would to report sickness absence to their headteacher or line manager. This should be as soon as is reasonably possible but not usually any later than one hour before their expected start time. The Request for Leave form (Appendix B) should then be completed on return to work.

If no contact has reasonably been made, the headteacher is required to make a deduction to salary for the unauthorised leave.

5. Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the employee to provide notice of leave by completing a Request for Leave Form prior to the leave required (Appendix B) and ensuring that the headteacher or line manager is made aware of a request for leave as soon as reasonably possible. It is the responsibility of the headteacher to ensure that leave requests are dealt with in a fair, timely, consistent and transparent manner. The headteacher or line manager should record and monitor leave appropriately and may seek the advice of the staffing committee of the school's governing body for a decision to grant any other leave request that is not listed in this policy.

Headteachers and line managers are responsible for ensuring that accurate records are maintained. They should also ensure that staff absences are regularly monitored and reviewed and that appropriate confidentiality is maintained.

Headteachers and line managers are responsible for identifying patterns of absence within schools which may be an indicator of employee's personal or work-related issues. Where such patterns are identified, headteachers and line managers can seek appropriate advice from the schools' HR Team on possible actions.

6. Misuse of Policy

The misuse of this policy may result in disciplinary action. The headteacher has the responsibility to monitor levels of absence, and if an employee unreasonably exceeds emergency leave within a school year, or is deemed to be falsely requesting leave that has been agreed by the headteacher or line manager, action may be necessary under the disciplinary policy.

In the event that special leave is declined and an employee proceeds to take the leave then an appropriate deduction of pay will be made and disciplinary action will be considered.

7. General notes

The list of 'close relatives' detailed in this policy is not exhaustive. Consideration should be made as to the impact a family member may have on the employee's life.

The legal definition for Time off for Dependents is "reasonable amount of time". For the purposes of this policy the term 'reasonable' should be decided by individual schools on a case by case basis.

8. Monitoring and Review

The Governing Body should monitor the outcomes and impact of this policy and procedure on an annual or biannual basis in conjunction with school staff or Trade Union representatives.

This policy will be reviewed no later than two years by Human Resources in consultation with Trade Unions and Powys County Council's Schools Service.
